NY cops took 43 mins to enter building

Firemen
New York City firefighters and police took 43 minutes to enter the World Trade Center building on Sept. 11, 2001, according to a report released by the 9/11 Commission.

Firefighters from the 101st Precinct, which was the closest firehouse to the World Trade Center, arrived at the site at 8:58 a.m. but did not enter the building until 9:41 a.m., 43 minutes after the first plane hit the building.

Head on fire now
The report, which is the first of a series of reports from the 9/11 Commission, says that firefighters from the 101st Precinct were the first to arrive at the World Trade Center on Sept. 11, 2001.

Major earthquakes in Italy in the past 100 years

By AP Wire

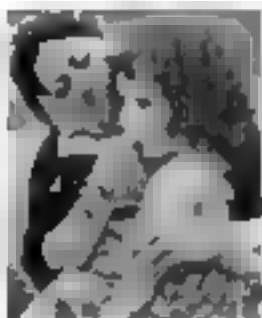

At least 28 people were killed and more than 1,000 injured in a powerful earthquake that struck the town of Avezzano, about 40 miles north of Rome, on Tuesday. The quake, which measured 6.2 on the Richter scale, was the deadliest in Italy since 1908, when a 7.1 quake killed about 20,000 people in Messina.

Rwanda picks symbolic site to mark 15th year of genocide

KIGALI, Rwanda (AP) — Rwanda's government has chosen a site in the heart of the capital to mark the 15th anniversary of the genocide that killed an estimated 500,000 people in 1994. The site, known as the 'Kibeho' site, was the location of a military camp where thousands of refugees were held before being killed. The government has announced that it will hold a series of ceremonies at the site, including a funeral for the victims and a display of the remains of those who were killed. The ceremonies are expected to draw thousands of people, including government officials, military leaders, and members of the public.

String of bombings kill 21 in Baghdad

Baghdad (AP) — A series of bombings in Baghdad on Tuesday killed 21 people and wounded more than 100 others. The bombings, which took place in different parts of the city, were attributed to a group of extremists known as the 'Islamic Front for the Liberation of Iraq'. The group has been active in carrying out attacks against the Iraqi government and its allies. The bombings in Baghdad were part of a larger campaign of violence that has been ongoing in Iraq since the start of the Gulf War. The attacks have caused significant damage to the city and have led to the deaths of many innocent people.

Merck helps in the fight to lighten malaria burden

Merck & Co. Inc. has announced a new partnership with the World Health Organization (WHO) to help fight malaria. The partnership will involve the development and distribution of new drugs to treat the disease. Malaria is a major health problem in many developing countries, and it is responsible for the deaths of millions of people each year. Merck has been a leader in the development of new drugs to treat malaria, and this partnership will allow the company to reach more people in need of treatment. The WHO is a leading international organization for public health, and its involvement in the partnership will ensure that the drugs are distributed effectively and that the fight against malaria is coordinated on a global scale.

Duch: U.S. contributed to rise of Pol Pot

PARIS (AP) — French Foreign Minister Jean-François Duchesne has accused the United States of contributing to the rise of Pol Pot, the leader of the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia. Duchesne made the accusation during a speech to the French Parliament, in which he claimed that the U.S. had provided support to the Khmer Rouge in the 1970s. The Khmer Rouge regime was responsible for the deaths of an estimated 2 million people in Cambodia. The U.S. has long denied the accusation, claiming that it never provided support to the Khmer Rouge. The French government has been criticized for its role in the Cambodian genocide, and Duchesne's speech is seen as a further attempt to shift blame onto the United States. The speech has caused a major diplomatic row between France and the United States, and it is expected that the two countries will continue to disagree on the issue for some time.

How to get what you want

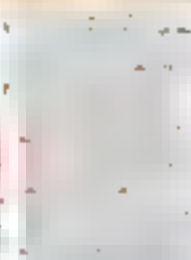

By [Name]

The first rule of getting what you want is to know what you want. It's not always easy to figure out what you want, but it's worth the effort. Once you know what you want, you can start to work on getting it.

Ai Ai awaits movie with Erap

After a long hiatus, Ai Ai is back in the Philippines, and she's ready to take on the big screen. The actress, who has been in the U.S. for over a decade, is set to star in the movie "Erap" (English: "The Godfather"), which is a remake of the 1972 Filipino classic. "Erap" is a crime drama that follows the story of a man who is wrongfully convicted of a crime and then escapes from prison to seek revenge. Ai Ai will be playing the role of the man's daughter, who is also wrongfully convicted and escapes from prison. The movie is directed by Ishmael Bernal and is expected to be a major success in the Philippines.
